Frontman joins ANTI-M

PHOENIX, AZ - If you haven't heard the news around town yet, you may be suprised to find out ANTI-M has added a frontman to their line-up. In May, the orchestrated hard rock group expanded to five pieces when singer/guitarist/keyboardest/song-writer Scott Jeffers joined. Scott was formerly the frontman for PROPHECY and NECROMANCER, both of which were very successful in Phoenix and Tucson.

In the short time he has been in the band, Scott has written two originals for ANTI-M and collaborated on two others. These songs have been integrated into the live shows along with other originals from the EP cassette Beyond the Emerald City released (and sold out) earlier this year, and cover songs by Queensryche, Extreme, Queen, Aerosmith, Whitesnake, Styx, and many others.

Now with five lead vocalists in the band the harmony possibilities are immense and they continuously prove it in their gigs throughout Arizona. You can check out ANTI-M's new frontman (or, if you prefer, Scott Jeffer's new band) at any of the scheduled performances listed below.

July Schedule

July 3-6	The Rare Hare 2801 N Scottsdale Rd Scottsdale, AZ
July 12-13	Twin Peaks 110 E Grant Tucson, AZ
July 17-20	Jin's Sneak Joint 22nd and Wilmot Tucson, AZ
July 25-Aug 4	Vacation Maryland and Arizona

New Logo

Adding a member to the band leads to numerous other changes. One that the public sees first is the promo pictures. Since they had to do a photo shoot for a new picture, keyboardist, Mark Greene, decided to also update the logo for the promo pictures, shown above. Although this logo is a definite improvement over the old one used on the EP cassette it will probably not be the last. This logo is their fourth one.

Song Lyrics: Sand Kings

by Ed Clapper

Treasures and trinkets keep you holding on
Would you last a day if your wealth was gone?
Souls can survive by keeping their dreams alive

Reach for the precious jewels you can't obtain
Some will waste a lifetime but it's all in vain
Selling what's inside to meet the demands of pride

Avance, a passion that is far from new (You can't take it with you)
Possession is the spirit that possesses you

Step outside the man
Look inside while you still can
It's too late in the end . . . in the end we're

Kings of Sand
Dreamers of the world can understand
Kings of Sand
And time is the ocean with no end

Try to buy yourself some peace of mind
A facade that fills the emptiness is all you'll find We've known from the start, true gold lies in the heart

Thank You

Some of the people we would like to thank this month include the following:

The Rare Hare, Hammerheads, and Zeros- We are glad to have the opportunity to perform in your bars

The road crew- money hasn't been so good lately, but hopefully it will be paying off soon. Thanks for your dedication.

Debbie and Debbie- Thanks for filming us and for the latenight breakfasts.

Lori, Heather, and Theresa- for putting up with us.

Val Serranno- for getting us into the Phoenix club scene.

All the fans- for being there.

Dynasties and empires will fade away
(Nothing lasts forever)
So much can be gained by living for today

Time waits for no man
Live the vision while you can
Try to understand, in the end we're

Kings of Sand
Time is the enemy of man
Kings of Sand
Build your palace on the shore to watch it wash away again . . .

And as the ashes blow away
(In the darkest hour)
It's too late to save the day

Your heart still knows the way
Deny it and your soul is what you'll pay
Don't throw your dreams away

Kings of Sand
Time is the river with no end
Kings of Sand
Building castles on the shore, yeah
Kings of Sand
You'll never have this chance again
Kings of Sand
